FOR YOU TO WIN

Last weekend's State League round, with its unpredictable draws, proved too hard for anyone to forecast — in fact, not one entrant in the Mocopan Coffee Jackpot was even close.

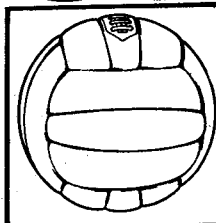

So the prize jackpots another

$100, which means that this week there is a prize of $700 to be won.

Every entry was so far off the beam that no consolation prize was awarded.

Full details of this week's contest will be found on the back page.

ONE GOAL DOWN SO...

Hellas face battle

By George Yelland

South Melbourne Hellas start underdogs against A.P.I.A. of Sydney, in the crucial second leg of the Ampol Interstate Cup Final, at Olympic Park tomorrow.

STAN ACKERLEY
OF APIA

The scales are weighted in favour of the Sydney club, who start the game one goal up, having downed Hellas 3-2 in Sydney.

The partisan support of a Victorian crowd will help to off-set this to some extent, but Hellas will need to attack from the start.

Although occupying third position on the League ladder, Hellas will need to produce more penetration in attack. Seven goals from six championship games is not enough.

Their defence is sound. Last week, they restricted the talented Juventus line-up to a single goal.

It was encouraging, last Sunday, to see the effort put in by Ernie Ackerley. He possesses guile and a tremendous shot and is capable of winning a game off his own boot.

David Gorrie has had a lean scoring period of late, but cracking home a good one against Juventus might just be the tonic he needed.

If big Jim Armstrong can reproduce the form he showed in the first leg, APIA could be in for a torrid time. New defender, Alan Rutherford has tightened Hellas' defence and they should be equal to most situations.

A word of warning to goalkeeper Stephens. "Punch less and collect the ball whenever possible."

Apart from this tendency, he positions well and has terrific reflexes. Steve Walker has fitted in well and is giving the Middle Park club excellent service. Johnny Bedford and Ulysses Kokinos, two of their key men, received hard knocks in the Juventus game.

Doubts about their fitness may delay team selection. If they recover, they are certain to play.

Hellas will extend Apia and if they play their wingers wide, using the corners and stretching the opposing defence across the field, it may create enough gaps for the inside trio to register a winning margin.

Tomorrow night is a night to forget club loyalties. All Victorian Soccer lovers should roll up at Olympic Park at 8 p.m., to encourage Hellas in their fight for Victorian supremacy in the series.

A large crowd giving plenty of vocal support, could spur Hellas on to victory.

Former Hakoah full back, George Keith who went with the Australian team to Vietnam but stood down through an ankle injury, is not expected to be fit to resume.

But his co-defender Stan Ackerley, ex Slavia, is back in the side after being out for some time through injury.

Hellas goalkeeper Stephens clash with Kinnell of Juventus, while defender Walker covers the goal.

More pictures and a full round-up of the weekend's State League are on Pp. 2 and 3.

JUST FINAL HOPE

J.U.S.T., after an inauspicious start to the State League season, but the only side to register a win last weekend, are back in the reckoning now they have jumped into fourth position on the ladder.

It's still "as you were" with first, second and third positions. Juventus dropped a valuable point against South Melbourne Hellas but are still the only unbeaten side and retain their position at the top with a two point lead over Croatia.

South Melbourne Hellas, in for a double stint this weekend, retain their third placing.

With the seventh round coming up (almost a third of the programme), the heat is now on. But it looks as though the top four will draw further away.

ALEXANDER v. POLONIA

Alexander, just a step away from a middle-of-the-table position, may find the improving Polonia a tough assignment. For Polonia's across the field style of play may pose some problems for Alexander who like to go forward in formation.

However, with more bite in their play, the Greek side could collect full points.

HELLAS v. SLAVIA

Less than 24 hours after meeting APIA in the Inter-Cities Ampol Cup Final, South Melbourne Hellas face Slavia. And not having a bench full of adequate reserves, they could be leg weary.

However, they are likely to show some changes and even with an understrength side should pull it off against the luckless Slavia.

LIONS v. WILHELMINA

Lions, still switching their side without any great success, could change again for this game. And both defence and attack needs strengthening.

Wilhelmina, dumped by J.U.S.T., and slipping after a bright start, badly need full points to save a further slide.

CROATIA v. JUVENTUS

This is a vital game for both. A loss for Juventus and Croatia could take over at the top. A win for Juventus and they would widen the gap at the top.

Croatia have lost some of their composure in defence and must hope Vojtek and McKay are back to their best to give them a chance to collect both points. Still the experienced Juventus get the nod.

J.U.S.T. v. HAKOAH

Back to their best and with Zoraja, Buljevic and Stankovic in scoring vein, the 1969 champions are likely to climb rather than slip in the future.

But although Hakoah are not a polished side, they are capable of pulling off a surprise.

Still in all facets of the game, J.U.S.T. look too good and should consolidate their position in the four.

MELBOURNE v. GEORGE CROSS

Both sides disappointed last weekend although both were unbeaten. And both suffer from the same malady - lack of strikers.

Melbourne, newcomers with the exception of Juhasz, have not been impressive of late while the George Cross attack can be mercurial and mediocre, are a real problem.

Difficult to separate this pair although the more aggressive George Cross could be the best bet.

STATE LEAGUE

- with the experts

With sheer desperation etched on his face, Hellas goalkeeper Jimmy Stephens (above) dives full length to get his fingertips to a stinging shot from a Juventus attacker. But later Stephens was in the wars following a goalmouth melee. Below: Stephens lies crumpled on the ground while referee David Yelland casts an anxious eye over him.

Stankovic into lead

Tommy Stankovic, the 38-year-old Footscray J.U.S.T. dynamo has moved one point clear in the voting for the 1970 Marlboro best player award.

Stankovic polled two votes against Wilhelmina on Sunday, to bring his total to 13, one more than those of David Pygall (Wilhelmina), Mike Pye (Wilhelmina), Ian McCarthy (Lions) and John Gardiner (George Cross).

Stankovic's votes up to the sixth round have been: 3,2,0,3,3,2.

Leader in the Marlboro top scorer award is still Bryan Thomson of Juventus, who has netted six.

Close on his heels with five goals are Bill McIntyre (Croatia), Branko Buljevic (J.U.S.T.), Brian Edgley (Wilhelmina) and Jimmy Mangopoulos (Alexander).

Votes for the sixth round:

FOOTSCRAY J.U.S.T.: 3 Buljevic, 2 Stankovic, 1 Zoraja.

WILHELMINA: 3 Pygall, 2 Pye, 1 Bunce.

POLONIA: 3 Czerniecki, 2 Widera, 1 Closs.

CROATIA: 3 McIntyre, 2 Hargreaves, 1 Rau.

JUVENTUS: 3 Webster, 2 Salisbury, 1 Thomson.

HELLAS: 3 Stephens, 2 Ackerley, 1 Rutherford.

HAKOAH: 3 O'Neill, 2 Cameron, 1 Gadsby.

ALEXANDER: 3 Mangopoulos, 2 T. Xanthopoulos, 1 Kennedy.

GEORGE CROSS: 3 Gardiner, 2 Reid, 1 Sanchez.

LIONS: 3 Wenzl, 2 Butler, 1 McCarthy.

SLAVIA: 3 O'Hara, 2 McBain, 1 Shedden.

MELBOURNE: 3 Juhasz, 2 McDaid, 1 Wallace.

Tough for Juventus

Juventus 1, Hellas 1

Gradually, defences got the upper hand, but both sets of forwards should have scored more than once before half-time.

It was by no means a dirty game, but heavy conditions slowed players down resulting in many more close tackles than normal.

Both Reilly and Stevens caused heart flutters when they punched balls that should have been collected.

Juventus opened the score when Stevens punched out a cross from the left, straight to the feet of Webster.

He hit it first time and blasted it into the corner of the net from 20 yards.

Hellas equalised with a glorious goal. Ackerley took the ball wide on the left wing before crossing accurately to the unmarked Gorrie, who crashed it past the helpless Reilly.

Rutherford played another storming game for Hellas and is proving a real find. Kyriazis shows an amazing turn of speed for a defender and Walker was a tower of strength in defence.

High played his usual, thoughtful and intelligent game.

For most of the game, their forwards were ragged with only

Ackerley showing enterprise.

Juventus never rose to last week's standard, but should have won. They play some clever mid-field football but suffer from the common complaint of unsatisfactory wing play.

Scorers — Juventus: Webster. S. Melb. Hellas: Gorrie.

TEAMS

JUVENTUS: Reilly, Della Rocca, Kinnell, Irvine, Lakey, Salisbury, Goodwin, Frost, Thomson, Webster and De Marchi. Dockerty replaced De Marchi during the second half.

S. MELB. HELLAS: Stephens, Rutherford, Kyriazis, High, Walker, Bedford, Kokinos, Armstrong, Ackerley, Gorrie and Gould. Dafers replaced Bedford in the second half.

Slavia grab first point

Slavia 0, Melbourne 0

Slavia have to thank Melbourne's putrid attack for grabbing their first league point of the season. For with such an overwhelmingly superiority in play, Melbourne made poor use of several gilt-edged scoring chances.

Slavia had some measure of play in the first half but their attack, and especially Steele and McCallum, were too fond of trying long-range efforts which seldom troubled Gerrard in the Melbourne goal.

In the second half Melbourne were in command almost all through but wingers Keri and Bleskany who had failed to impress in the first half, were progressively weaker in the last 45 minutes.

And the Melbourne inside trio of Wallace, Pocock and Rogers seldom looked dangerous although Wallace, playing a deep role in midfield, could be exempted from criticism.

Honors went to the defences of both sides. Melbourne were solid in the rearguard where Juhasz and McDavid stood out while Slavia's back-bone with some luck and a fine display by O'Hara in goal were obviously content to hold out for a draw in the closing stages.

TEAMS
SLAVIA: O'Hara, Jones, Mc Bain, Sjo, Zanetta, Sheddin, Livingstone, McCallum, Paul, Steele, Adam.
MELBOURNE: Gerrard, Mc David, Juhasz, Sabo, Mc Cowan, Scott, Keri, Wallace, Pocock (Desmings), Rogers, Bleskany.
Ref: Geoff Harrison. Crowd: 1000.

POLONIA 0, CROATIA 0.
With a refreshing display, Polonia merited a well earned point here. Holding the whip hand in the opening stages when Kovacek was fully tested three times in the first 12 minutes by Closs, Czapoik and Widera their defence tied up Croatia's two international stars, Vojtek and McKay.

It was not until late in the first period that Croatia came into their own when McIntyre, Hargreaves and Vojtek took on a more aggressive role to cause some anxious moments for Polonia.

Vojtek tried hard to keep Croatia in attack and in the second half showed some of his individual brilliance when he outpaced and outsmarted Polonia defenders.

Almost on the final whistle McIntyre just failed to grab full points for Croatia when he failed to connect with a through ball after Litwin had fumbled.

All in the result was right in the end.

TEAMS
POLONIA: Litwin, Knot, Sowula, Czernecki, Zurawski, Casput, Olmowski, Closs, Siwka, Widera, Flaska (Mar mur).
CROATIA: Kovacek (Vojtek), Bot, Gunn, Symington, Williams, Rau, McIntyre, Smolic (McArthur), Vojtek, McKay, Hargreaves.

RINGWOOD 2, FOOTSCRAY 3.

Footscray had a slight edge in the opening stages as both teams struggled to overcome the heavy conditions and nearly took the early lead when a fantastic flying header from Frank Micic hit the bar with Van Edmond well beaten.

But, both sides were playing a brand of fast attacking Soccer and it came as no surprise when Ringwood went in front after a scintillating solo effort by left winger Freddie Bunce produced a corner.

The kick found Pygall who side footed it over a goalmouth ruck to Edgley who, sliding onto the ball, placed it well out of reach of Fode in the Footscray goal.

Footscray equalised four minutes later through Zoraja after a good work by Stankovic and took the lead early in the second half when Branko Buljevic broke away from Ward to score with comfort and style.

Sadly missing the mid-field generalship of Mike Pye, switched to full-back the Ringwood attack ran out of steam in the second half.

And the speed of the terrible trio from Footscray, Stankovic, Buljevic and Zoraja gave Ward and Co. a torrid time as they wove their majestic path towards goal.

Stankovic was often left unmarked and after 54 minutes, Zoraja found him with a great through pass.

This was despatched very smartly past Van Edmond for what proved to be the winning goal.

With batteries recharged Ringwood fought back in the closing stages and both Bunce and Edgley came close before O'Toole worked the ball low into the near corner of the net. A sort of consolation prize.

The individual talent of the Footscray team is now being brought out by coach Brocic. Ringwood are faltering, seemingly unsure they are worthy of their lofty position on the ladder.

Juventus goalkeeper Jack Reilly kicks the ball to team-mate Pat Della Rocca who manages to steer it away from the incoming Hellas striker David Gorrie.

Scorers — Ringwood: Edgley, O'Toole. Footscray: Zoraja, Buljevic, Stankovic.

HA KOAH 1, ALEX 1.

This was a game with much promise. Starting with fire and goals, evening out to a defensive battle, it finally petered out to a tame draw.

Fitzroy United made two mistakes. Scoring a beautiful goal after only five minutes, Jimmy Mangopoulos posed a threat to Hakoah every time he moved goalwards.

Unfortunately Fitzroy focussed all their attacks on Mangopoulos and Hakoah's defenders blanketed him after that early goal.

Their other mistake was to forsake their wings.

In early attacks, Douglas, Baker, O'Neill, Gadsby and Stenhouse were stretched across the field as Fitzroy attacked down both wings.

Later, they bunched in the penalty area and made it easy for defenders.

Hakoah were also guilty of crowding the penalty area and making the wings wide open spaces.

As a whole, both teams did well to maintain a lively pace in wretched conditions and several thrills occurred at both ends.

Hakoah equalised when Cameron crossed a pinpoint centre for Clarey to rise high and deflect it into the corner of the net.

It was a picture goal. Waaldyk, Clarey and Cameron tested Kennedy with good efforts, but he was in top form.

Glennie and Xanthopoulos were the strong men in Fitzroy's rearguard and Militis did good link work. Papagrigoriou went close on several occasions, as did Mangopoulos. Douglas, Baker and O'Neill settled down to become a solid workmanlike defence. A draw was a fair result.

Scorers — Hakoah: Clarey, Alexander. Mangopoulos.

TEAMS
HA KOAH: Henderson, Douglas, Baker, Gadsby, O'Neill, Stenhouse, Fry, Waaldyk, Clarey, Cameron and Bridge-man. Thomas replaced Stenhouse in the second half.

ALEXANDER: Kennedy, Tiktakis, Glennie, Krievs, Xanthopoulos, Sello, Mangopoulos, Militis, Papagrigoriou, Pokianos and Brown. Racovalis replaced Papagrigoriou in the second half.

GEORGE CROSS 1, LIONS 1.

But for a magnificent display by Wenzl in the Lions goal and an inept display by their forwards George Cross might have hammered Lions. With the possible exception of Reid, the Cross attack flopped badly in the art of finishing and bunched together and played it so close they got in each others way.

On the other hand, Lions deserve some credit for a fighting display in which they lost Bartley after seven minutes. He was taken to hospital where a leg gash needed several stitches. Later, Starczak also copped an injury and was virtually a passenger although remaining on the field.

Lions surprisingly went into the lead four minutes after half-time when, Roseweir, playing in his former position at centre, crashed a 15 yard drive past Kastner.

Lions, defending stubbornly to hold their lead although they too had a few chances to score, went through the mill in the second half and particularly in the closing stages after Reid equalised with a header nine minutes from the end.

Scorers — George Cross: Reid. Lions: Roseweir.
TEAMS
GEORGE CROSS: Kastner, 800.

THE HELLAS STORY PART TWO

Big years follow setbacks

Titles galore!

In 1963, Hellas recruited Victorian representative Tommy Anderson from George Cross and John Anderson from Hakoah.

But the season was not a successful one, with Hellas finishing sixth behind J.U.S.T., Polonia, George Cross, Slavia and Wilhelmina. Their points total of 21 was the lowest yet.

Success almost came in the Ampol Cup competition, but Polonia beat Hellas 1-0 in the final.

Johnny Margaritis was top scorer that season with seven, but he was way behind the League's top marksman, Eddy Jankowski, of Polonia, who scored 21.

Champions were recruited in 1964 and Hellas were back in winning form.

Andreas Roussis from Greek First Division club Apollon moved into the team at centre-half, Peter Tsitsos, now with Hellas Adelaide, took over in goal and won State selection and winger Jimmy Adam became one of Hellas' all-time greats.

Ernie Ackerley also joined that year. He played two senior games with Manchester United before moving to Blackburn and finally to Fourth Division club Barrow.

Alexander's goalkeeper, Sam Service, switched to Hellas and winger Jimmy Pyrgolios was imported from Panathinaikos.

With the reinforcements came another premiership. This time Hellas won from George Cross, J.U.S.T. and Juventus.

JOE MAJOR concludes the story of South Melbourne Hellas, the most successful club in State League history.
Season 1963 was a disappointing one for Hellas, but it was to prove a turning-point for the club.

In the Dockerty Cup, they were again beaten in the semi-final, this time by Slavia 1-2 after extra time.

In 1965 a clearance finally arrived for left-winger Leo Damianakos, of Greek Second Division club Kalamata. Damianakos had arrived in 1964 but had sat on the sidelines for the entire season.

The 1965 team was made up of John Anderson, John Bedford, Stratos Kalageros, Andreas Roussis, Sam Service, John Mantarakis, Jimmy Pyrgolios, Boulis Kamboropoulos, Ernie Ackerley, Mike Mandalis and Leo Damianakos, and they gave Hellas their third State League premiership.

Greek star

Con Nestorides was the greatest centre-forward Greece had produced since the war and he starred with the Greek national team and with AEK.

When he joined Hellas at the age of 37 in 1966, crowds immediately doubled.

With Nestorides captain-coach and with David Kelly and Victorian representative David High joining from Slavia, Hellas again won the premiership, this time finishing two points clear of Slavia, with Hakoah and Melbourne in third and fourth positions.

David Gorrie, a current State representative, joined from England that year and became a consistent goal scorer for Hellas.

But 1967 stopped Hellas' run of successes. After a tough season the team finished fourth behind Melbourne, Juventus and Croatia and lost the Ampol Cup final to Slavia.

Ten Greek players were imported for 1968 but only three of them were up to standard. By season's end, all the imports had returned home.

However, the appointment of top coach Lou Brocic paid off and Hellas finished in third place behind Croatia and Polonia and won the 1969 Ampol Cup by beating Croatia 2-1, with Frank Micic scoring the first goal and Leo Damianakos converting a penalty.

Another five Greek imports came in 1969 and again the Hellas committee regretted it.

Tavias played one and a half games and a half and Kalogirou made a few appearances. But Asimomitis, Panagiotou and Panagiotopoulos were not good enough.

All five returned to Greece at the end of the season.

Hellas finished in seventh place, with only 21 points, behind Footscray J.U.S.T., Juventus, Wilhelmina, Croatia, Hakoah and Lions.

This year Hellas has concentrated its funds on recruiting local players.

Centre-half Steve Walker came from Lions for $3500, and Jimmy Armstrong from Hakoah for $6000.

Ulysses Kokkinos has returned from Greece, costing Hellas $2000, and goalkeeper Tim Augar, winger Geoff Gould and full-back Alan Rutherford have been imported from England.

Lou Brocic returned as coach early this year and took Hellas to their second successive Ampol Cup victory, but he quit a few weeks ago, leaving the job open for former Polonia and Victoria champion Vic Janczyk.

Taffy's Tips for the First prize dividends in the Treble Chance Pools will be in the record pay-out bracket for last Saturday.

Of the results of 39 matches on the lists there were only FOUR scoring Draws and TWO scoreless ones.

With the English Southern Leagues to come through, and thank goodness this was the last week taking on the average there could be at least four more scoring Draws so the top dividend should be paid on 24 points.

Balance of the results to hand produced eight Aways and 23 Home winners with two Queensland games void because of their interstate match against New South Wales, of course these two matches count as scoreless Draws - two points each.

Break-up of the Draws was one in N.S.W., three in Victoria (five out of six games in the State League), and one each in South and Western Australia.

Here are the dividends in sterling currency for Saturday, April 25, when there were 16 Draws - 11 scoring and five scoreless - match numbers of scoring Draws were 7, 11, 12, 14, 35, 39, 45, 46, 50, 54, 55, and the scoreless 1, 3, 16, 23, 32. For the number of Draws these dividends were very good.

VERNONS

Treble Chance Pool: 24 points, £1,164-9-0 for a farthing; 23 points, £57-17-0; 22 points, £2-17-0; 21 points 7-0.

Twelve Match Results Pool: 12 correct, £3,832-0-0 for 2d.; 11 correct, £24-4-0; 10 correct, £1-8-0.

Three Draws: 16-0.

LITTLEWOODS

Treble Chance Pool: 24 points, £11,745-0-0 for a penny; 23 points, £281-4-0; 22 points, £22-19-0; 21 points, £3-4-0; 20 points, 10-0.

Twelve Match Results Pool: 12 correct, £2,622-0-0 for 2d. 11 correct, £68-8-0; 10 correct, £2-8-0.

Golden Homes Pool: 23 points, £1,504-13-0 for a penny; 22 points, £175-17-0; 21 points, £22-12-0; 20 points, £4-19-0; 19 points, £2-18-0.

Three Draws: 24-0. The Golden Homes Pools are becoming more popular now with the Australian season well advanced, as I mentioned last week for this Pool it is better to concentrate on the lower Divisions for your selections.

Of course, when a team at the top of the leading Leagues meets the bottom team, there's a chance for that match selection.

But take the figures for last season as examples, in New South Wales Federation there were almost twice as many goals scored in the Second Division as the First Division.

In the Victorian State League of the 132 matches played, they produced 422 goals, while in the Vic. Division Four with the same number of games 605 goals were scored. Up North in Queensland there were 90 matches played in Division One and they averaged less than four per game, but the 131 games played in Division Two averaged over five goals a match.

So it pays to note the teams with the crack forwards, or at least forwards who wear their shooting boots every week, also the top teams with good back lines, strong in defence.

Just a reminder for Golden Homes Pools' fans, three points are awarded for Home teams winning by three or more goals, two points for Home teams winning by two goals and one and a half points for Home teams winning by one goal or for a void match.

So off we go for NEXT SATURDAY WEEK, MAY 16, when the following should have easy wins at Home:-

Aston shows how

One of the most popular and helpful F.I.F.A. officials ever to visit Australia was Mr. Ken Aston, ex international referee and now member of the parent body's Referees' Committee. As a lecturer, he held the Australian Referees spellbound. His calm, thoughtful approach to the problems of refereeing was of inestimable value to Victorian whistlemen.

To a man, they eagerly await a return visit.

He is pictured above setting the scene to Peter Bonetti, Chelsea's star goalkeeper, when shots for the F.I.F.A. film on the "four step rule for goalkeepers" were taken.

A night to remember

By George Yelland

Friday night was a night to remember for Australian Soccer Fans.

Allison a real pro —Adam

There is one man who knows what to expect when Malcolm Allison comes to Melbourne with his club later this month. He is Jim Adam, who had a spell as assistant coach to the Australian team and coached several State League sides.

Adam, who played as a professional in England for many years with Aston Villa, Stoke City and Luton Town, rates Allison in the same class as top FIFA coach Dettmar Kramer.

Qantas, Australia's International airline, sponsored the showing of the replayed English Cup Final on Channel 9.

At the same time, Channel 2 also put the game on, and it is probably the first time two T.V. stations in Melbourne have catered for the soccer public at the same time.

The support given by Qantas to soccer in Australia is giving the game a tremendous lift.

As soccer lovers we are indebted to the airline authorities, and trust it brings them the reward they deserve.

Stiff final now for Leeds?

Leeds United face a heavy fine over their decision to play a full reserve side against Derby County in an English First Division match two days before they played off their first leg European Cup-tie with Celtic.

The Football League demanded medical certificates for all the regular first team players omitted from the side and the facts will be tabled at the next meeting of the League's Management Committee.

They have a precedent for the Leeds affair in that four years ago Everton were fined £2000 for playing 11 reserves seven days before an English F.A. Cup semi-final. Burnley is another club who copied it in the same manner when they were fined £1000 for fielding nine reserves against Chelsea in 1961.

British Prime Minister Harold Wilson, in a recent newspaper feature on his links with Second Division champions Hud-

HORNER SUSPENDED

Lions have suspended striker Colin Horner indefinitely for a breach of discipline and have notified the V.S.F.

Horner, an Englishman, joined Essendon side a year ago from Metropolitan club Park Rangers, and last year was one of their leading scorers.

Lions would not elaborate on the reason for Horner's suspension, other than a statement by their secretary that no player is going to run the club.

Metropolitan round-up — with George Yelland

.. Unlike State League, there was not one drawn game in any Dockerty or Armstrong Cup encounter last weekend.

.. Most games went as expected. The only giant killing act was Third Division Clayton's 2-0 victory over Second Division Yallourn.

.. Prahran City caused a mild surprise by pipping the powerful Dandenong 2-1.

.. Strangely enough, Clayton were involved in an upset Harry Armstrong Cup result.

.. Twice last year Clayton Reserves defeated Brighton Reserves. But their strong team received a shock when they visited Dendy Street. Brighton won by two clear goals.

.. It is regrettable that ALL clubs in the state do not participate in these two cup competitions.

.. Even though minor clubs do not normally expect to take out the trophies, surely there is the thrill and glamor of cup competition, so much a part of European soccer.

BATTLE ROYAL!

Mooroolbark surprise Springvale

Perhaps the most thrilling of the Dockerty Cup games was the battle royal, between Mooroolbark and Springvale, played in appalling conditions, before a surprisingly large crowd.

Springvale were shocked by the enthusiasm and pace of the Third Division boys, as they stormed into attack.

In 10 minutes they found themselves a goal down when an Alan Irving pile driver from 20 yards beat Aldo Comin all the way.

The experience of ex-State League player Terry Vowles steadied Springvale, and, after he had equalised, young Hans Rubens gave Springvale a half-time 2-1 lead.

Comin was in top form and miraculously saved a John Orr shot which might justly have sent Mooroolbark in on equal terms at half-time.

An unfortunate incident in the second half saw Hank Meyer lose his temper and receive marching orders.

In spite of playing with only 10 men, Springvale burst through to a 3-1 lead when Peter Conti blasted home a beauty.

With five minutes left, never-say-die Mooroolbark made it 2-3 when John Orr scored a screamer.

The home side threw everything into a final effort and Springvale breathed sighs of relief as the last whistle blew.

Peter Conti and Aldo Comin were outstanding in a well balanced Springvale side, while Davey Richardson, Vlado Klepac and Alan Irving stood out in a team of 11 battlers who were a trifle unlucky not to get another chance.

In the Harry Armstrong Cup game Mooroolbark Reserves won once more, but were surprised at the tenacity and spirit of Monash University Reserves.

Davey Lloyd and Ivan Yates put Moo-roolbark 2-0 up at half-time, and Tony Mitchison made it 3-0 before Monash's persistence gave them a consolation goal in the 75th minute.

Keilor City made no mistake in their derby cup game with St. Albans.

A tough, even first half, with St. Albans having the edge in midfield, was followed by a winning goal rush in the second.

St. Albans missed good opportunities. Two sitters, in particular, from the left wing, were frittered away before half-time.

In the second half Keilor clicked and were all over the home side. Joe Grady, on the left wing, ran rings round the defence and set up all four goals.

Kaz Klein and Eddie Kupik each scored twice and Keilor ran out easy winners.

Joe Grady represented Victoria in the under 14 and under 16 age groups. Out of the game for a year due to studies, he has returned to be a key man in Keilor's bid for promotion.

Bill Szewszuka and Grady were outstanding in a team which played high class soccer, particularly after the interval.

Clayton showed steadiness and determination to survive early pressure in their cup tie with Yallourn.

Under a heavy barrage, their crossbar was hit, two efforts were cleared off the line by defenders and John Slade made a fantastic save from a point blank shot.

But half-time arrived with the score sheet still clean.

Ten minutes after the interval, Michael Davis shocked the Latrobe Valley boys with a good goal.

Yallourn did not panic but could not pierce a compact defence with goalkeeper Slade in tremendous form.

With only a minute to go, Clayton sewed the game up when Davis scored his second from a breakaway.

Clayton's strong reserve side had a nasty shock when a more purposeful Brighton put them out of the Armstrong Cup.

Western Suburbs proceeded to the Fourth round of the Dockerty Cup at North Carlton Olympic's expense.

Olympic put up a great fight and fully extended the Western Suburbs side.

Seventeen-year-old Jimmy Kypirtidis scored two great goals to put Western Suburbs in the box seat at half-time.

Heavy rain made playing conditions difficult, but Olympic fought back well for Con Gamrellis to reduce the arrears.

It was in the nature of an accidental present when the home team went to a 3-1 lead.

North Carlton's goalkeeper collected a ball and booted it out. Striking one of his own defenders, the ball rebounded into the net.

Jimmy Kypirtidis played an attacking role in the first half and was equally sound as linkman in the second.

He, Frank Bradley and George Maykousis were outstanding for the winners.

Croydon Reserves moved into the Second round of the Harry Armstrong Cup when they soundly defeated Western Suburbs Reserves 4-1 in atrocious conditions.

Heavy rain made the pitch treacherous.

An early penalty for Croydon went begging, when Mark Logan shot over from the spot.

The first goal was scored by opportunist Keis Oudendyk, following a corner kick.

A 25-yard, bullet-like shot from wing

New leader as Cobram hits back

Once again there was a change in leadership of the North-Eastern League, on Sunday, when Cobram took over from Whorouly.

Returning to full strength, Cobram outplayed Whorouly and finished 4-1 winners.

Shepparton were held by the unpredictable Milawa, and Benalla were overwhelmed by a goal hungry Albury. Deniliquin found their scoring boots and slammed five past Wangaratta's goalie. Wangaratta are embarking on team rebuilding and the going is tough. Their plan will pay off and they could become a force as the season progresses.

An improving Wodonga topped Seymour and the southern club slipped three places on the ladder.

Myrtleford turned on their power to achieve a good win at King Valley's expense.

half Roy Howard resulted in the second.

The greasy ball slipped from the goal-keeper's hands, through his legs and into the net.

Leo Kinwell took a through pass, streaked goalwards and calmly slid it wide of the goalie, to make the half-time score 3-0.

Oudendyk scored another before Western Suburbs got a consolation goal when a direct free kick from just outside the penalty area was blasted high into the net.

Eighteen-year-old centre-half Bill Dowse, goalkeeper Roy Bennett and lanky forward Neil Manthorpe were best for Croydon, who deserved their victory.

Hakoah Reserves survived a strong challenge by Heidelberg Reserves, in their Armstrong Cup tie at Middle Park, on Sunday.

Ben Gillespie, Willie Cunningham and Joe Katz scored for Hakoah. Heidelberg replied twice, but could not find enough to force a replay.

In heavy conditions

Bayswater Reserves and Coburg Reserves played a tame, uninspiring first half, in which neither side scored.

Ten minutes into the second half, the home side shocked Coburg with a neat goal.

This spurred on the visitors and right half Angus McGregor levelled the scores.

Goals by Ron Taylor and Dennis Crooks followed, to give Coburg a comfortable passage into the next round.

McGregor, Taylor and Norman Georgopoulos were prominent for the visitors.

Bayswater and Coburg First teams played a friendly game which resulted in a 4-2 win for the visitors.

The Metropolitan League competition resumes next week and a number of close games are likely to be featured.

Box Hill are out on their own in Division One, but all their games will be like cup ties as opponents fight to be the first to down them.

NO SHOCKS IN CUP OPENER

The opening round of the District League Cup last Sunday brought with it a few minor surprises but no major shocks.

The biggest win of the day went to Williamstown Inter who strolled away to a 14-0 win over Mitcham.

Last years finalists Fitzroy were fully stretched by Langwarrin, but held on to win 3-2.

Fitzroy's goals were scored by big K. Korlevic 2 and F Pasquini who has been finding the back of the net regularly each week.

Ardeer advanced to the next round with efficiency and ease, overcoming Yarraville 3-0 in the process. Ardeer were in trouble before the game started as regular goalkeeper L. Wolczepki was unable to play through illness, but last minute stand-in Joe Toczynski turned in a great game between the posts becoming the best man afield.

Yarraville's normally rock like defence were troubled throughout the game by Ardeer's clever wing play, highlighted by quick bursts of speed and pin-point crosses. Outside left Richard Klimczak tantalized his opponents all day and scored two fine goals while doing so, and playing coach Eddie Klimczak put the issue beyond doubt.

Big gulf

On a badly flooded pitch, Chadstone trounced Parkville Cedars 7-0, the score giving an indication of the gulf between the two teams' abilities. Cedars never stopped trying but were brushed aside with comparative ease leaving goalkeeper T. Warden a much overworked man.

Chadstone wingers John Ryan and Brian Wilkinson set up the chances for strikers Alex Fox 3, and Tommy Doolan 2, to cap off with goals. Ryan added another and a converted penalty closed the account. Link-man Alan Barlow had to leave the field in the second half with a gashed shin, but substitute Sam Spano continued the good work.

Improvement

Fawkner's teamwork showed a visible improvement in their 3-0 win over Melton, a club renowned for their cup fighting spirit.

Over 200 fans braved the bad weather to watch Fawkner finally find the successful formula and bang in goals through Michael Cosmano, Carlo Camera and Vic Del'Olio.

Fawkner recently paid Tristina a $50 transfer fee for left winger Carlo Camera, a player who starred with Anstey Roma in District Circles a couple of years ago.

Goalie Robert Bertocchi resumed his position for Fawkner upon his return from Queensland and had a relatively quiet day to mark his come-back.

West Melbourne's

initiation into cup soccer was short lived, as they found the task against Pascoe Vale too much, and were defeated 1-3.

On a ground in remarkably good condition, Michael Janeski 2 and Peter Agievski wrote their names in the scorebooks for the Vale who were well served by centre-half Norm Trolakavski.

In a great pressure game Doveton got home and supplying his own forwards with numerous chances.

A re-shuffled Cheltenham line-up proved far too strong for Laverton "B" coming home 5-0 winners, with goals from Chris Wade 2, Dick Jones, Dave Williams and Pierre Micic.

Cheltenham have never been afraid to experiment, and hit the jackpot by moving Chris

Sunday, they will play Newport in a practice match.

Royal Park crushed Reservoir 5-0 with determined play. Canin 2, Yusuf, Baycekiner and Firkoca ran up the Park's tally, while a particularly strong rearguard action kept Reservoir pinned down in their own half of the field.

Diamond Creek held the crack Garden City side goalless for 65 minutes, but then faltered after Mick Davis had been sent off to go under 0-3.

City scored through Charlie McCorqudale, A. Tskakas, and M. Aakovadas, but were denied two further goals when Creek's goalie Jerry Dove stopped two penalty kicks.

Elimination

The following clubs will play an elimination round on Queen's Birthday holiday, Monday June 15, to reduce the number of teams remaining in the cup to 16: Garden City versus Frankston Pines or Army Apprentices; Chadstone versus Central Altona or Regent.

District League

(by Rick Lavale)

against Middle Park by a hair's breadth with the winner being decided by penalty kicks after extra-time failed to separate the two teams.

Middle Park opened the scoring through Tamiakis, but Doveton equalised with a Martin Jones goal.

Tamiakis restored the lead for Park but again Martin Jones put the Doves back on level terms before the full 90 minutes were up.

Extra time failed to produce a goal and so the result hinged on 5 penalty kicks taken by each team.

Doveton's Dave Wilkinson converted all five, placing tremendous pressure on Middle Park's Papageorgiou who converted his first three attempts, but tragically missed the fourth, so eliminating Middle Park from further participation in the competition.

Thrilling draw

The largest crowd of the round was at Lloyd Reserve, where 500 spectators witnessed a thrilling 2-2 draw between North Sunshine and Ascot United.

Charlie Borg netted both Sunshine goals and was well supported by right half Les Peel.

The teams were still locked together after extra-time, so necessitating a replay.

Kew defeated Toorak 3-1, with goals from V. Speljak 2 and S. Fortini. Man of the match was Kew's left half T. Ismat who was all over the ground, constantly stopping Toorak attacks

Extra time was also necessary at Greaves Reserve, when South Dandenong and East Carlton were locked together in a 3-3 draw, but South snatched the winner to keep their hopes alive.

East Carlton's defence, normally their strong point had several bad lapses allowing J. Karriaynnidas 3, and J. Routely, to register South's winning tally. At the other end of the ground, Oscar Ciappiana, Robert Vecchiato, and Jim Bangassary scored for East Carlton, who were unlucky to hit the woodwork three times.

Central Altona fought back strongly to force a 3-3 draw against Regent, who held a 3-1 lead at half-time.

Both teams found the ball hard to control in very wet conditions.

Slogganov 2 and Ferraro scored for Regent, while Central Altona replied through Rudy Kiefer, Hans Hulmer and Herb Brummbauer. Best players were Peter Ferrante (Regent) and Jimmy Heiley (c. Altona).

Bewildered

Williamstown ran up the colossal total of fourteen goals without reply against a totally bewildered Mitcham.

Town's Scoresheet reads: J. Hermann 5, J. Carlevic 3, J. Cassar 3, S. Davidovic, A. Dovicin, J. Laco.

As Williamstown have a bye in the league next
